At this time, Mr. Paul Hegner addressed the Board in support of Dr. Black's re-application for dental licensure in Rhode Island. He advised the Board that Dr. Black had applied for and been denied a RI dental license three years ago based upon his failure to disclose disciplinary action taken against his license in Massachusetts. Mr. Hegner advised the Board that since that time, Dr. Black's license has been fully reinstated and unrestricted. He requested that the Board reconsider Dr. Black's application for licensure based upon his current standing in Massachusetts. The Board will seek verification of Dr. Black's dental licensure in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. The Chairman advised Mr. Hegner and Dr. Black that the Board would take the request under advisement. Mr. Hegner and Dr. Black left the meeting at this time.
